Application

This shoe box is suitable for living rooms, bedrooms, cloakrooms, and offices, and can store shoes, books, and other items that need to be neatly arranged. This storage box can not only store shoes. Its uses are very extensive. It can also be used to store clothes, books, CDs, and more, whether in the bedroom, cloakroom, bathroom or even office, it will be a good helper for storing items.

Notes:

1. Although you don't need to assemble this item, when unfolding, it is necessary to press the back cover down to the buckle and pull out the door panel to the upper and lower buckles. We can provide videos for your reference.
2. If you feel that the storage space is not enough, you can buy the same product again and freely stack it directly on top.
3. Please allow the slight color difference caused by the shooting light and 1-3cm error due to manual measurement and make sure you do not mind before ordering.
