What is the Right Rug Pad for Me?

A rug pad is essential to keeping your rug attractive and to extend the life of your rug, as well as protecting your floors. There are a lot of rug pad qualities and types out there. Let us point out the key features and benefits for each type so you can choose the right product for your flooring needs.

| General Features    | Premium PlusDual Surface | PremiumDual Surface | Premium100% Felt | BetterStay RugPad | RugGripperTape | OutdoorGripperTabs |
|---------------------|------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------|
| Non Skid Grip       | X                            | Х                       |                      | Х                         | Х                      | Х                          |
| Added Cushion       | Х                            | Х                       | Х                    |                           |                        |                            |
| Floor Protection    | X                            | Х                       | Х                    | Х                         |                        |                            |
| Hard Surface Use    | Х                            | Х                       | Х                    | Х                         | Х                      | Х                          |
| Soft Surface Use    | X                            | Х                       | Х                    | Х                         |                        |                            |
|                     |                              |                         |                      |                           |                        |                            |
| Added Benefits      | Premium PlusDual Surface | PremiumDual Surface | Premium100% Felt | BetterStay RugPad | RugGripperTape | OutdoorGripperTabs |
| Superior Cushion    | X                            | Х                       | Х                    |                           |                        |                            |
| Recycled Content    | X                            | Х                       | Х                    |                           |                        |                            |
| Stair and Hallways  | X                            | Х                       |                      |                           | Х                      |                            |
| Aggressive Non Slip |                              |                         |                      |                           | Х                      | Х                          |
| Outdoor Use         |                              |                         |                      |                           |                        | Х                          |
| Made in USA         | Х                            | Х                       | Х                    |                           | Х                      | Х                          |