

Installation Guide

Taking the 11th floor as an example, the accessory list

Start assembly

1. Remove the door suction layer board and install the door suction with small screws

2. Remove the left side bracket and install the door suction layer board with large screws

3. Remove the door suction panel (without installing the door suction) and install it with large screws

4. Take out the ordinary layer board and install it in sequence

5. Erect the bracket, take out the back panel in sequence and insert it into the groove of the door suction layer board

6. Remove the side bracket and install it with a large screw on the right side

7. Take out the door panel, door mat, door pull ring, and metal clip and install them as shown in the picture

8. Take out the metal strip and insert it into the side bracket hole

9. Gently pry open the right side bracket, clip the door panel into the groove of the side bracket, and finally tighten the right screw of the side bracket