

Petrified Wood

Created when minerals seep into trees and fossilize, petrified wood is a rare material of singular beauty. Every piece is different depending on the combination of wood and minerals, contributing to the unique character of our furniture.

- Wipe up spills immediately with a slightly damp cloth, then dry with a clean towel.
- Avoid placing hot objects like plates or pans directly on the surface.
- Avoid placing heavy or sharp objects on the surface.