THE COLLECTABLE COLLECTION

The Apothecary Collection draws its inspiration from the beautiful shapes of old apothecary bottles that are now sought-after collectables. Designer Xander Noori looked to the past for inspiration and brought it into the present with unique chamfered details, beveled edges and balanced arcs, resulting in a silhouette of contoured elegance and nuanced simplicity. The Collection adds an element of nostalgia and warmth to any space for an enduring design that's eminently collectable in and of itself.
