The Manufacturer warrants its products to be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use and service for twelve months from the date of shipment. Natural variations in color, texture, physical distressing and other inherent features of manufacturing, as well as material characteristics, are not to be considered defects. Subject to the above limitations, the Manufacturer may authorize repair or replacement, at its option, any part(s) of the product covered by the warranties which do not perform properly within the applicable warranty period because of defects due to faulty materials and/or workmanship.
