

The circled area is where the screws or nuts need to be installed.

The nuts framed in red are installed on the screws circled in red, and the foot pads framed in blue are installed on the base circled in blue.