

Using a plier open the chain link cut and remove the chain links requested.

Using a plier open the cut from the last chain link not removed to attach them to the tooth hook, close the link properly to secure the link chain in place .

